FOR CYCLISTS

A network by the  ECF
EUROPEAN CYCLISTS' FEDERATION

Cities & Regions for Cyclists is a network bringing together local and regional administrations, working to promote the bicycle as a mode of transport and leisure, and the exchange of knowledge on cycling policies.

Main aims of the network are:

- Exchanging knowledge, solutions and strategies and thus promoting political initiatives and practical work on the ground;
- Inspiring and catalyzing cities to take action in promoting cycling by learning from each other and avoiding the dilemma of having to “reinvent the wheel”;
- Putting cycling at the centre of urban planning practices, thereby triggering and supporting a change in political thinking

Membership benefits

Support and benefit from ECF advocacy

The ECF advocates for more and better cycling on a European level with far-reaching benefits for local and regional administration.

Exchange best practices

Our growing network provides opportunities to share knowledge and learn from other cities.

Participation in annual workshop

Every year the Cities & Regions for Cyclists network gives representatives the chance to meet face to face and exchange information on implementing bicycle plans, involvement of bicycle users' associations, etc.

Free participation in Velo-city conferences

Network members are entitled to free tickets (in relation to their membership contribution) to attend ECF's flagship conference on cycling as a mode of transport.

Get your work featured on ECF channels

As a network member you can multiply your impact by sharing your success stories on our communication platforms.

Stay informed with the dedicated network newsletter

Curated with up-to-date information on European cycling policies, potential partnership opportunities in EU-funded cycling projects, and calendar of relevant events for the promotion of cycling

Exclusive access to ECF resources and knowledge base
